One great thing to be thankful for is a Democratic administration. May this dessing be continued to us.—Portland

As this appeared in the same paper containing the President's letter refusing to reinstate District Attorney Stone, for partisan reasons solely, the Argus's doubtless thankful to think it sees the end of the British Civi Service System. Logus reform nonsense.

The Administration candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals in New York had a plural ty of 7,689. Rather a narrow a plural by of 7,689. Rather a marker of the British civil service system as the home of the President, to say nothing the home of the President, to say nothing the home of the President, to say nothing the past season.

"Is the President's heart thanged" is one of the headlines in the New York Herald over Mr. Cleveland's remarkable performance in the case of District Attor--ney Stone, who, like District Attorney nton, was suspended for making political speeches. Not in the least. As the ference "twixt tweedledum and tweedle-Mr. Cleveland has been masquerading for some time and is now showing the "boys" that his reform policy was not to hedg og for a re-nomination.

The third party drew away enough votes in the Ninth and Teach Congressiondidates, and elect two free trade Democrats. We dislike to renied our contemporary of these troublesome facts, but if it will persist in keeping up this sort of thing it must face the music.

Gov. Curfer, of New Hampshire, bas appointed ex-Gov. P. C. Cheney United States Senator to fill out the unexpired term of the late Sepator Pike. Mr. Cheney, who is a brother of the Rev. Dr. Cheney, of this State, was born in Holderness, now Ashland, N. H., in 1828. He took in ear, ly interest in politics, and represented the town of Peterboro in the Legislature in 1853 and 1854. In 1862 he was appointed Quartermaster of the 13th New Hair pshin Regiment, and served in the army of the Potomac till exposure and overwork in the campaign before Fredericksburg brought on a long illness, and he was compeliëd to resign in 1863. In 1864 he was chosen Railroad Commissioner, and in 1866 he removed to Manchester and engaged in the manufacture of paper and sale of paper stock, and has since resided there. In 1871 he was elected Mayor of the city, and in 1874 he was crosen President of the People's Savings Bank, which effice he still retains. More Than it Can Stand.

It appears that there was no foundation for the statement that Congressman Smalls' opponent in the Seventh Congressional District in South Carolina was a colored Democrat. We thought the story was the creation of a vivid imagination. Col. El lott, the Democratic candidate, is a Southern lawyer of prom numes. He was a member of the Democratic National Convention in 1876 and a Hancock elector 19-1380. The result of the election in this district affords so striking an illustration following vigorous terms:
"We doubt if there has ever been a more unwise or absurd proceeding than the fight against Smalls and the methods used in miking it. The Democratic party of the country has gained one member of the mesitate to speak their convictions, a dismal failure.

Sever-members of the House in present Congress have died: Duncan, of Pennsylvania, Ellwood, of Lilnols, Rankin, of Wisconsin, Hahn, of Louisiana, Cole, of Maryland and Beach and Arnot of New York. The Senate has lost two members by death, Miller of Celifornia and Pike of New Hampshire.

The Mugwamps having taken upon themselves the part of champions-in-chief of the Administration, get in their applause on my and all occasiors. It makes no difference whether he is leading an imaginary rad on the wicked partisans, or meekly accepting his orders from a rampaat Democratic Senator, the cheering goes right along all the time.

One great thing to be thishkful for is a large and politicians are given a strong case, and they will make the those by it. They will oharge that we carred the State into district and stolen the one Representative. They will not only charge but will prove that the county boar is acted within the law in throwing out many boxes and hounded sof votes for irregularities, but the fact will stand out bold and unquestioned that the neglitude was a pre-arranged plot to deprive the major by of its weight will be too plun and clear for resistance. The State will he put before the country as being party to a plain, deliberate and wanton fraud."

In the last election in the district Mr Smalls defeated the same Elliott by a large pajority and would have been returned to the next House had not the Democrats rescreed to frauds so glaing that the Yeus fee a called upon to repudiate the course of its party leaders

REED'S EMBEZZLEMENT.

The Amount Growing Larger and Larger The Amount Growing Larger and Larger. Buston, Nov. 26. It is learned that the stock of the Mexican Telephone Co., of which keed was also treasurer has been over issued to amount of 9,600 shares. Although the par value of the stock is 50 a share, it is now quoted at $150; so that the loss by fiver issue will fall little short of $15.000. To offset this however, a director states that the company was indebted to Reed for money advanced for instruction, and the actual loss to the company will not be over $1,500 or $2,500.

Reed is known to have made reports to Reed is known to have made reports to the drectors as to the condition of the Bailroad Company, increasing the assets and reducing the liabilities, and the amount of the embezziement was thereby enlarged several thousand dollars. Nothing can yet be ascertained as to the examination of the pifering, and no estimate can be made until the expert completes the examination of the Company's affairs.

ATTEMPTED INCENDIARISM A Chicago Hotel Fired in Sir Places.

A Causage storal Fired in Six Piccos.
CHICAGO, Nov. 26. During the investigation into the causes of vesteriay's fire in the Continental Hotel, Inspector Shay discovered unmistakable evidence of incendarism at the hotel. At the head of the hitchways leading in the carries at the hatchway leading to the garret, at the bead of the fourth floor and where the head of the fourth floor and where the rafters of the roof are within three and a half feet of the gerret floor, a pile of bed ticks stuffed with shavings were torn open in several places and danbed with common lard from a pie-pan which lay beside it, was found. The incendiary was evidently scared away before he had time to complete his work of firing the house. The fire was discovered between two and three coulded restricted an arrest large of the could be restricted and arrest large.

"Had there been a delay of ten minutes" said Inspector Shay, "In the discovery of the fire and in giving the alarm to the guests, I have not the slightest doubt that many of them would have imaped from the windows to the ground in the panic or been lost of smothered in the smoke." The building is an old first-rap anyway, and it was fired in no less than six places.
